I loaned him my copy of Joe Riding`s The Tarot Made Easy, which teaches how to read the Tarot in seven days. Sadly, Joe Riding died in 2005, and the booklet is no longer available. You may be able to find a copy on eBay or at a magic shop. (I've listed other books at the end of this article.) Joe's system uses the Rider-Waite Tarot deck.

This is important because a. it's value. I've paid a lot more for a lot less. And b. this blows other similar systems out of the water. To make an analogy, this is the difference between Riding`s Tarot in 7 Days and the entire BOTA curriculum. The readings possible with a given 'system' are only as effective as the capacity of that ...

Piers, the best resource, though difficult to get, is the late Joe Riding's Learn the Tarot in Seven Days. It actually took me under an hour to be doing readings. Based on his work, Tarot Made Easy by Black Hart ( http://www.blackhart.co.uk/tarotcourse.html) is also a good introduction. Either will have you doing readings within a day or two.

Joe Riding is the best source for this. He wrote a tiny little book claiming that it would take you 7 days to read the tarot. And he was right. It took me exactly seven days after reading his book! My business skyrocketed when I learned the Tarot which I regard as the strongest divination system known to man. Joe was a very good all rounder.
