The model A pistol is the 9 mm Largo variant of the A/B series of 1911-inspired pistols that led Star design for the next 60 years. The models A, B, P and M had roughly comparable updates over the years. Many other models were related to this series; for example, the model S is simply a scaled-down model A/B series design, and was first produced concurrent with the earliest model As, in 1922.

Almost all "classic" era Star pistols, basically 1911-looking guns, were made in both original and Super variants. The original series employs a Colt/Browning swinging link, while the Super series use a Sig/Petter closed cam path system. The super models were almost always sold alongside the original style pistols, and did not supplant them.
