Under the Shadow of God. In the context of today's society, living in someone else's shadow is not a good thing. If you are in someone's shadow, you receive less attention and you seem less important than them. In other words, you're as good as invisible. Nobody would want to be in someone else's shadow.

A shadow requires three things: a source of light, an opaque object, and a field where the shadow falls. If the light is God, the opaque object, the ego, and the field where the shadow falls, the universe, then the shadows of the ego, projected by the Divine Light, are false beliefs, which appear to that ego not as its own shadows, nor even as beliefs, but as the literal nature of reality: the shadows of God.

God Is in the Shadows

The shadow of a man is often larger and more far reaching than the man himself. The most potent form of influence is not only silent but also for the most part, unaware -- Just as we are rarely Conscience of our Shadow - Rarely are we aware that it is there - so it is true that we are rarely aware of our influence.
